

COLORADO RIVER CANOEING IN BLACK CANYON 4-DAY TRIP ITINERARY

Canoeing on the Colorado River through Black Canyon below Hoover Dam is an incredible experience and one of our most popular trips. The desert environment is broken by the cool waters of the river and the hot springs found at our camp are a welcomed treat after a day of paddling.

Minimum Experience Level: Hearty beginner &/or experienced paddler; Ability to swim

Sample Itinerary: (Subject to change due to weather, conditions, and other unintended changes):

Day 1 -Drive from UCSB to Willow Beach Marina campground.

Day 2 -Load canoes and have a canoe lesson. Paddle 8 miles upstream to our camping area with a lunch stop along the way.

Day 3 -Lay over day. Explore farther up river, hike or just relax around camp. Same campsite as Friday night.

Day 4 -Early breakfast, load the canoes and paddle back to Willow Beach. Pack up the van and trailer and drive back to UCSB.

Departure Location: Near the main entrance of the Recreation Center.

Departure Time: Meet at 8:00 A.M. so we can load your personal equipment and leave at 9:00 A.M. As a courtesy to the group, please be prompt. If you are not there on time we will leave without you. No refunds for no-shows.

Approximate Drive Time: 10-12 hours depending on length of stops.

Approximate Return Time: 11 P.M. on Sunday if the group leaves the river by 12:00 P.M.

No Drugs or Alcohol: University regulations and program policies do not allow alcohol or drugs on this trip. Thank you for your cooperation.
